

Code of Conduct of

DELT (The association of Danish to English Literary Translators)

Version 2, June 2018

Members shall conduct themselves with the highest standards appropriate to a professional body in all cases.

The Code and any subsequent change to it must be approved by the Annual General Meeting of the Association by vote.

As per DELT's Constitution, the Committee shall have the power to enforce the provisions of this Code.

DELT COMMUNITY GUIDELINES

The DELT online Group is a discussion forum for the association of Danish-English Literary Translators (DELT). Its purpose is to enable contact between DELT members, to allow members to seek and provide advice, to exchange information and to discuss professional matters.

1. The Group is 'closed' (not public) and accessible to DELT members only. Therefore, no content may be shared with outside parties without permission.
2. Members should ensure that comments and posts are relevant to the interests of members of the Group and that any comments about another member's work/translation are accessible to that member.
3. Members can choose to receive notifications or opt out ('unfollow').
4. This Group is not the place for political or religious discussions. Please avoid them. Similarly personal communications should be conducted or continued outside the Group.
5. Personal attacks on members of the Group or on other professional colleagues will not be tolerated.
6. A discussion may be curtailed by a moderator if it becomes contentious, libellous, offensive or excessively trivial.
7. Members who persistently ignore these guidelines may receive reminders via private email and ultimately be excluded from the Group (Constitution Paragraph 6 d).
8. Any complaints about conduct within the Group or comments about these guidelines can be sent to: DELTCommittee@gmail.com or via Private Message to the Group administrator.
